

AIDS Service Providers Uganda
AIDS Healthcare Foundation - Uganda Cares	http://www.aidshealth.org	Uganda CARES is a partnership between AHF and the Uganda Ministry of Health. Uganda CARES was the first organization to provide ART outside of the capital city of Kampala and is one of Uganda's largest providers of AIDS treatment and care.
AIDS Information Centre	http://www.aicug.org	The AIDS Information Centre aims to prevent the spread of HIV and mitigate its impact by being a model of excellence in the provision and expansion of Voluntary counselling and testing, information and education, and the promotion of care and support.
Business Part	http://www.psfuganda.org	PSFU is Uganda's apex body for the private sector. It is made up of 105 business associations, corporate bodies and the major public sector agencies that support private sector growth.
JCRC	http://www.jcrc.co.ug	The Joint Clinical Research Center conducts quality medical research and training, provides equitable and sustainable HIV/AIDS care and other health care services in Uganda and other parts of Africa.
Mildmay	http://www.mildmay.org.uk	Mildmay aims to strengthen existing HIV/AIDS provision through training, or create appropriate new services, in partnership with local government or NGO bodies - to help scale up access to good quality holistic care. Mildmay's operation is becoming increasingly strong in sub-Saharan Africa, with centres in Uganda and Zimbabwe created with the support of each country's ministry of health.
PSI	http://www.psi.org	PSI is a nonprofit organization based in Washington, D.C. that harnesses the vitality of the private sector to address the health problems of low-income and vulnerable populations in more than 60 developing countries.
TASO	http://www.tasouganda.org	The AIDS Support Organisation is the largest indigenous NGO providing HIV/AIDS services in Uganda and Africa. The organisation has 11 service centres spread in Uganda, with now 13 "mini-TASOs" in other parts of the country that are outside TASO's catchment area of 75Km from the nearest service centre.
Uganda AIDS commission	http://www.aidsuganda.org	The Uganda AIDS Commission (UAC) is the Government body legally charged with coordinating the national multisectoral response against the HIV/AIDS epidemic in the whole country.
UNASO	http://www.unaso.or.ug	UNASO is the Uganda Network of AIDS Service Organisations. UNASO is the largest Indigenous nation-wide network of AIDS Service Organisations.